Judge Gableman: Law Enforcement's Choice for the Supreme Court

Bi-partisan list of Distinct Attorneys endorse only former prosecutor running for the Supreme Court.

[Burnett County, Wisc....] In a strong showing of bi-partisan support, a group of eleven District Attorneys from across Wisconsin endorsed Judge Michael Gableman in his campaign for the Wisconsin Supreme Court today.

Scott Southworth, Juneau County District Attorney, said this about lending his support: "I strongly support Judge Gableman. As a former prosecutor, he's dedicated much of his life to making Wisconsin a safer place." He added, "I'm proud to add my name to the growing list of law enforcement leaders throughout Wisconsin who support Judge Gableman."

Southworth was joined by:

- Angela Holmstrom, Barron County District Attorney
- Todd Martens, Washington County District Attorney
- Kathleen Pakes, Rusk County District Attorney
- John Theisen, Chippewa County District Attorney
- Mark Thibodeau, Adams County District Attorney
- Dan Cary, Monroe County District Attorney
- Richard Dufour, Marquette County District Attorney
- David Wambach, Jefferson County District Attorney
- Tim Gaskell, Vernon County District Attorney
- Leon Stenz, Forest County District Attorney

"As the only prosecutor running for the Supreme Court, I have first-hand experience knowing just what a difficult and important job these District Attorney's have," said Judge Gableman. "It is great honor to receive their endorsement."

Gableman had been previously endorsed by Waukesha County District Attorney Brad Schimel, Bayfield County District Attorney Craig Haukass, Iron County District Attorney Martin Lipski, Ashland County District Attorney Sean Duffy, Winnebago County District Attorney Christian Gossett, Washburn County District Attorney J. Michael Bitney, Langlade County District Attorney Ralph Uttke and the Taylor County District Attorney Karl Kelz.

Judge Michael Gableman has a distinguished and wide-ranging legal career serving as a Circuit Court Judge, District Attorney, Assistant District Attorney, Administrative Law Judge, Adjunct Professor of Law, Deputy Corporation Counsel and private practice attorney.

Prior to his experience on the bench, Judge Gableman was appointed District Attorney for Ashland County (1999) by Governor Tommy G. Thompson and subsequently won election to the position. As District Attorney, he was the lead prosecutor on cases as diverse as arson, sexual assault, domestic violence, and white collar crimes. He also served as a front-line prosecutor in Marathon County (1997-1999) and Langlade County (1996-1997) as an Assistant District Attorney.
