Law Enforcement Continues to Rally Around Judge Gableman

More Sheriffs, More DAs, More Judges join Gableman as the only candidate for the Court with law enforcement experience

[Burnett County, Wisc....] As 2007 winds down, Judge Gableman's campaign for Supreme Court got another boost today as it released several new law enforcement endorsements. Today's endorsements add to Gableman's already impressive list of supports – which already includes a bi-partisan majority of sheriffs.

Law enforcement leaders across the state point to Judge Gableman's experience as a front line prosecutor and adherence to the law as the reason for endorsing him in his bid for the state's highest court.

“To have the support of those who are in the trenches everyday fighting to make sure we live in safe communities is humbling to me,” said Judge Gableman. “I look forward to continue working with them this coming year as we bring our message to every voter in every corner of Wisconsin.”
